- (m) To enter into contracts.
- (n) To invest the monies of the Association not immediately required for its own purposes in or upon such investments, securities or property as may be thought fit, subject nevertheless to such conditions (if any) and such consents (if any) as for the time being may be imposed or required by law and subject also as hereinafter provided;
- (o) The objects of the Association shall not extend to the regulation of relations between workers and employers or organisations of workers and organisations of employers.
- (p) To carry on any other activities whatsoever which can in the opinion of the Association be advantageously carried on by the Association incidental with or conducive to or ancillary to any of the objects of the Association or its calculated to benefit the Association or enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Association's property or rights or is required by any client or customer or persons (legal or natural) dealing with the Association; and
- (q) To do all such other lawful things as may be necessary for the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

APPLICATION OF FUNDS

6. The income and property of the Association from whatsoever source derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects set forth in these Articles of Association, and no portion thereof shall be transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus, or otherwise whatsoever by way of profit to the members of the Association.

PROVIDED THAT nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Association:

- (a) Of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer, employee or servant of the Association for any services actually rendered;

- (b) To any officer, servant or employee of the Association or any member of the governing body of the Association in respect of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in or about the carrying out of his or her duties as such or the discharge of the business of the Association.
- (c) Of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Association.
- (d) To effect such insurances as the Directors thinks fit, including those required by law, and trustee indemnity insurance, excluding:
 - i) Fines
 - ii) Costs of unsuccessfully defending criminal prosecutions for offences arising out of fraud, dishonesty or wilful or reckless misconduct of the Trustee or other officer
 - iii) Liabilities to the Association that result from conduct that the Director or other officer knew or must be assumed to have known was not in the best interest of the Association or about which the person concerned did not care whether it was in the best interests of the Association or not.

(1) No Director may:

- (a) buy any goods or services from the Association;
- (b) sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Association;
- (c) be employed by, or receive any remuneration from the Association;
- (d) receive any other financial benefit from the Association;

unless:

- (i) the payment is permitted by sub-clause (2) of this clause and the
- (ii) Directors follow the procedure and observe the conditions set out in sub-clause (3) of this clause; or
- (iii) the Directors obtain the prior written approval of the Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes.

(2) (a) A Director may receive a benefit from the Association in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Association.

(b) A Director may be employed by the Association or enter into a contract for the supply of goods or services to the Association, other than for acting as a Director.

(c) A Director may receive interest on money lent to the Association at a reasonable and proper rate not exceeding 2% per annum below the base rate of a clearing bank to be selected by the Directors.

(d) A company of which a Director is a member may receive fees remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth provided that the shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange and the Director holds no more than 1% of the issued capital of that company.

(e) A Director may receive rent for premises let by the Director to the Association if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and proper payment to a Director.

(3) (a) The Association and its Directors may only rely upon the authority provided by clause 6 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (i) The remuneration or other sums paid to the Director do not exceed an amount that is reasonable in all the circumstances.
- (ii) The Director is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of:
 - his or her employment or remuneration, or any matter concerning the contract; or
 - his or her performance in the employment, or his or her performance of the contract; or
 - any proposal to enter into any other contract or arrangement with him or her or to confer any benefit upon him or her that would be permitted under sub-clause 6(2); or
 - any other matter relating to a payment or the conferring of any benefit permitted by sub-clause 6(2).
- (iii) The Director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Directors is present at the meeting.
- (iv) The other Directors are satisfied that it is in the interests of the Association to employ or to contract with that Director rather than with someone who is not a Director. In reaching that decision the Directors must balance the advantage of employing a Director against the disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the Director's services as a result of dealing with the Director's conflict of interest).
- (v) The reason for their decision is recorded by the Directors in the minute book.
- (vi) A majority of the Directors then in office have received no such payments.

(b) The employment or remuneration of a Director includes the engagement or remuneration of any firm or company in which the Director is:

- (i) a partner;
- (ii) an employee;
- (iii) a consultant;
- (iv) a director; or
- (v) a shareholder, unless the shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange and the Director holds less than 1% of the issued capital.

(4) In sub-clauses (6a)-(3) of this clause 6:

- (a) "Association" shall include any company in which the Association:
 - holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or
 - has the right to appoint one or more directors to the ARTP Council
- (b) "Director" shall include any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister or spouse of the Director or any person living with the Director as his or her partner.

Membership

7. Such persons as the ARTP Council shall admit to membership in accordance with law and who agree to act, and in accordance with these presents, shall be members of the Association and sign the register of members.
8. A named referee, who should be an ARTP member or state registered respiratory healthcare professional, must support all applicants. Membership status will be at the discretion of the ARTP Council and their decision is final.

9. Membership structure & tariffs

- 9.1 The tariffs for membership subscriptions will be agreed annually by the ARTP Council.
- 9.2 Honorary Life Members
Honorary members must have contributed significantly to the field of respiratory physiology and following nomination must be approved by more than 2/3rds of the voting ARTP Council.
(Life members have voting rights)
- 9.3 Student Members
A student member may be either a PTP Student Member, an STP Student Member or an Apprentice as follows:
 - 9.3.1 a PTP Student Member must be enrolled in a Practitioner Training Programme of Modernising Scientific Careers or a 4 year BSC (Hons) Clinical Physiology degree in either respiratory physiology or cardiology. Proof of ongoing enrolment at a higher education institution may be required. PTP Student Members are eligible for free membership; or
 - 9.3.2 an STP Student Member must be enrolled on the Scientist Training Programme of Modernising Scientific Careers. Proof of ongoing enrolment at a higher education institution may be required.
 - 9.3.3 an Apprentice member must be working in a respiratory or sleep department undertaking a recognised apprenticeship programme of level 4 to 6.
(Student members do not have voting rights)
- 9.4 Assistant Practitioner Members
An Assistant Practitioner member will be employed in Respiratory Physiology or an allied discipline in Respiratory Medicine as an assistant practitioner or healthcare assistant (for example on NHS pay bands 1-4).
(Assistant Practitioner members have voting rights)
- 9.5 Registered Members
A Registered member must be currently accepted onto the RCCP Voluntary Register, HCPC State Register, ACS Register or AHCS Register within a respiratory physiology discipline. Members must notify ARTP if their registration status changes.
(Registered members have voting rights)
- 9.6 Unregistered Members
An Unregistered member will be a qualified healthcare scientist who is employed in Respiratory Physiology and/or is performing Respiratory and/or Sleep diagnostics/therapy at a level that is above Assistant Practitioner but is not registered on one of the registers referred to at 9.5 above.
(Unregistered members have voting rights)

9.7 Allied Members

An Allied Member may be admitted as such if employed in Respiratory Physiology or an allied discipline in Respiratory/Sleep Medicine such as (which list is not exhaustive) clinicians, physiotherapists, other physiology disciplines, nurse/nurse practitioners and academics.

Allied Profession members may be eligible for a reduced subscription fee if there is a reciprocal agreement between two professional bodies of which the individual is a member (e.g. BSS, BTS). (Allied Members have voting rights)

9.8 Corporate Members

9.8.1 Corporate membership is open to companies involved in the fields of respiratory/sleep technology, physiology and pharmacology subject to approval by the ARTP Council ("Corporate Membership (Primary)").

9.8.2 Persons working for companies in a clinical capacity are normally eligible for Assistant, Unregistered Membership or Registered Membership. Persons not working in a clinical capacity that wish to hold a personal membership may be admitted as "Corporate Members (Secondary)" if their company is already a Corporate Member (Primary).

(Corporate members do not have voting rights)

9.9 Sleep Only Members

Sleep Membership is available to all sleep practitioners who do not otherwise fall into the above categories. Sleep only members have voting rights.

9.10 Overseas Members

Overseas Membership is available to all persons employed overseas in Respiratory Physiology, or an allied discipline, or who has an interest in Respiratory Physiology. Overseas members have voting rights.

9.11 The ARTP Council will review the membership structure and subscription fees annually.

10. Conditions of membership

10.1 All applicants for membership shall be subject to the approval of the ARTP Council of the Association and shall be decided on a majority vote of the ARTP Council. Before being admitted as a member, every proposed member shall complete and sign an application form, which will constitute a written consent to be bound by the terms of the Association's Disciplinary Code and the Association's Codes of Conduct. Members shall be provided with copies of each of these documents on request. The ARTP Administrator shall provide a written report/list of applicants for final approval at each ARTP Council meeting.

10.2 Applicants shall not be admitted to membership of the Association until the first annual subscription has been paid. The annual subscription fee is non-returnable.

10.3.1 Membership subscriptions can be started at any time and will last for 12 months from the date of acceptance and the fee is paid. Membership subscriptions will become due annually on the anniversary date of acceptance. Any member whose subscription has not been received within 3 months of expiration and has received due notification from the ARTP Administrator shall cease to be a member of the Association. Membership may be renewed on payment of the year's subscription. Due notification for the purposes of this clause is 4 weeks written notice.

10.4 Should membership lapse for a period of greater than 12 months, the membership will not be renewable. The lapsed members must make a fresh application for membership to the Association.

10.5 The ARTP Council shall have the power to terminate (in accordance with ARTP Disciplinary Code) the membership of any member who is deemed by the ARTP Council to have brought the Association into disrepute.

11 The liability of the members is limited.

12 Every member of the Association agrees that, if the Association is wound up while s/he is or within one year after she/he ceases to be a member, she/he will contribute to the assets of the Association such amount (not exceeding one pound £1) as may be required for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before she/he ceased to be a member and the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the same, and the adjustments of the rights of the contributors as between them.

13. Each member will only be entitled to cast one vote when any resolution is put or ballot conducted, irrespective of the amount of monies, assets or guarantees that they have loaned or contributed in any way to the Association.

14. Subject as aforesaid the ARTP Council may make such regulations in respect membership including qualifications conditions and payment of subscriptions and such other matters as they may at their absolute discretion think fit, without discrimination between persons by reference to wealth, politics, race, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation or other personal circumstance and with adherence to equal opportunities: and provided that any such person has fulfilled the qualification for membership, and paid or has agreed to pay the annual subscription, if any.

15 The rights of the members are personal and not transferable.

CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

16 A member shall cease to be a member if:

- (a) that individual dies or becomes bankrupt;
- (b) that member resigns in writing to the Secretary;
- (c) that member fails in the opinion of the ARTP Council to pay the annual subscription or any other monies due to the Association, if any;
- (d) that member ceases to fulfil any of the qualifications for membership as specified in Article 9 or by the ARTP Council from time to time;
- (e) there is in the reasonable opinion of the Directors good and sufficient reason for the termination of that Member's membership and the Directors so resolve, or,
- (f) the Association in a General Meeting resolves to terminate that Member's membership.
- (g) According to the bye laws of the organisation and any disciplinary code in operation.

17 A resolution of the ARTP Council to terminate a Member's membership shall not be valid unless the member in question has been given

- (a) at least 30 days' written notice of the intention to move the resolution, setting out the substance of the grounds on which the resolution is to be moved, and

- (b) an opportunity to make representations to the ARTP Council beforehand; or
- (c) an opportunity to make representations to the General Meeting at which that resolution is moved.

GENERAL MEETING

- 18 The Association shall hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the ARTP Council, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that every Annual General Meeting except the first shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding Annual General Meeting and within eighteen months after its incorporation.
- 19 All General Meetings, other than Annual General Meetings, shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
- 20 The ARTP Council may whenever they think fit convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by the Act.
- 21 Twenty-one days' notice in writing, or communicated in/by electronic form (including telephone conferencing, email, internet) of every Annual General Meeting and of every meeting convened to pass a Special Resolution, and fourteen days' notice in writing at the least of every other General Meeting (exclusive in every case both of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given), specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in case of special business, shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned to such persons as are under these presents or under the Act entitled to receive such notices for the Association; by with the consent of all the members having the right to attend the vote thereat, or of such proportion of them as is prescribed by the Act in the case of meetings other than Annual General Meetings, a meeting may be convened by such notice as these members may think fit.
- 22 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 23 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided 50 persons or 10%, whichever is the greater shall be a quorum.
- 24 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other cases it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same place, or at such other places as the ARTP Council may determine.
- 25 The Chair (if any) of the ARTP Council shall preside as Chair at every General Meeting, but if there be no such Chair, or if any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the members present shall choose some members of the ARTP Council, or if no such member be present, or if all members of the ARTP Council present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some members of the Association who shall be present to preside.
- 26 The Chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting.

- 27 At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is, before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands, demanded by the Chair or by at least three members present in person or by proxy and representing one tenth of the total voting right of all members having the right to vote at the meeting, and unless a poll be so demanded a declaration by the Chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association shall be conclusive evidence the act without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 28 Subject to the provisions of Article 27, if a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Chair of the meeting shall direct, and the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- 29 No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chair of the meeting, or on any question of adjournment.
- 30 The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question by which a poll has been demanded.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 31 Subject as hereinafter provided; every member shall have one vote.
- 32 Save as herein expressly provided, no matter no member other than a member duly registered, who shall have paid every subscription and the sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association in respect of his membership, shall be entitled to vote on by question either personally or by proxy for another member, at any General Meeting.
- 33 Votes may be given on a poll either personally or by proxy. On a show of hands a member present only by proxy shall have no vote. A Corporation may vote by its duly authorised representative appointed as provided by the Act. A proxy need not be a member.
- 34 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if such appointor is a corporation under its common seal, if any, and, if none, then under the hand of some officer authorised in that behalf.
- 35 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarised certified copy thereof shall be deposited at the office not less than forty-eight hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes vote, or in the case of the poll not less than twenty four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument proposes to vote, or in case of a poll not less than twenty four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution
- 36 Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or as bear thereto, as circumstances will admit:

“I,

“hereby appoint ,
“and failing him/her, ,
“of ,
“to vote for me and on my behalf at the (Annual or Extraordinary, or Adjourned, as the case may be) General Meeting of the Association to be held on the day of ,
“As witness my hand this day of 20

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

ARTP COUNCIL

37 Until otherwise determined by a General meeting, the number of members of the ARTP Council shall not be less than 5 or more than 9.

38 The ARTP Council shall consist of up to 9 members, 5 Directors being the officers set out below elected from the membership and 4 Directors being appointed by the ARTP Council (“the Independent Directors”) on the recommendation of the Executive Board to fulfil specific skills criteria on the ARTP Council as set by the ARTP Council from time to time.

The officers:

- Chair
- Vice Chair
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- President

39. The Treasurer, Secretary & Vice Chair will be elected by a ballot of the full (voting) membership of the Association in accordance with by-laws set by the ARTP Council from time to time).

40. Officers will (unless the ARTP Council decides otherwise) serve for a term of 2 years from the end of the AGM at which they were appointed. A Director may be eligible for re-election.

41. On completion of their term of office the Vice Chair will take over the Chair role.

42. The Executive Board will nominate and the ARTP Council will appoint the President who will usually, if willing to stand, be the outgoing Chair. The Executive Board could also choose to nominate another individual from a physiological/scientific background who they believe would be an appropriate representative of the Association. The President does not necessarily have to be a member of ARTP prior to being nominated.

43. The ARTP Council shall be entitled to appoint up to 4 Directors to fulfil such skills criteria as the ARTP Council shall consider necessary from time to time. The Executive Board shall assist the ARTP Council in recruiting such Directors. The term of Office for such Directors shall be 2 years. At the conclusion of his term of office a Director who is willing to continue in office may, if the ARTP Council thinks fit, be re-appointed for a further term.

44. The ARTP Council may from time to time co-opt a person to serve as a member of the ARTP Council, either to fill casual vacancy or to replace a retiring or disqualified Director, A Director so appointed shall retain his office only until the next Annual General Meeting, but he shall be eligible for re-election or re-appointment,

POWERS OF THE ARTP COUNCIL

45 The business of the Association shall be managed by the ARTP Council who may pay all such expenses of, and preliminary an incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Association as they think fit, and may exercise all such powers of the Association and do on the behalf of the Association all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Association, and as are not by statute or by these presents required to be exercised or done by the Association in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulations of these presents, to the provisions of the statutes for the time being in force and affecting the Association, and to such regulations being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the Association in General Meeting, but no regulation made by the Association General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the ARTP Council which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

46 The members for the time being of the ARTP Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; provided always that in case the members of the ARTP Council shall at any time be or be reduced in number to less than the minimum number prescribed by or in accordance with these present, it shall be lawful for them to act as the ARTP Council for the purposes of admitting persons to membership of the Association, fill-in up vacancies in admitting person to membership of the Association, filling up vacancies in their body, or of summoning a General Meeting, but not for any other purpose.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ARTP COUNCIL

47 The ARTP Council may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meeting as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. Unless otherwise determined 3 shall be a quorum. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

48 A member of the ARTP Council may, and on the request of a member of the ARTP Council the Secretary shall at any time, summon a meeting of the ARTP Council by notice served upon the several members of the ARTP Council. A member of the ARTP Council who is absent from the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to notice of a meeting.

49 The President shall be entitled to preside as chairperson at all meetings of the ARTP Council at which she/he shall be present. If at any ARTP Council meeting the President be not present within five minutes after time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to preside, the Chair shall preside. Otherwise the members of the ARTP Council present shall choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

50 A meeting of the ARTP Council at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the authorities, power and discretion by or under the regulations of the Association for the time being vested in the ARTP Council generally. A Director may be part of the quorum at an ARTP Council meeting if they can hear, comment and vote on the proceedings through telephone video conferencing or other communicates equipment.

51 The ARTP Council may delegate any of their power to committees consisting of such member or members of the ARTP Council as they think fit, and any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations imposed on it by the ARTP Council. The meetings and proceedings of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of these presents for regulation the meetings and proceedings of the ARTP Council so far as applicable and so far as the same shall not be superseded by any regulations made by the ARTP Council

52 The ARTP Council may allow individuals who are not Directors to attend ARTP Council meeting as observers of whatever terms they decide. Observers can take part in discussions but not vote and the ARTP Council may exclude an observer if they consider the business to be private and must exclude an observer from a meeting at which a private benefit to him is being considered.

53 All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the ARTP Council or of any committee of the ARTP Council, or by any person acting as a member of the ARTP Council, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be member of the ARTP Council.

54 The ARTP Council shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the ARTP Council and of the proceedings of all meeting of the Association and of the ARTP Council and of committees of the ARTP Council, and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to such meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

55 A resolution in writing signed by all members for the time being of the ARTP Council or of any committee of the ARTP Council or of such committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the ARTP Council or of such committee duly convened and constituted.

DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

56 The office of a Director shall be vacated:

- (a) If a receiving order is made against him or he makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors.
- (b) Is removed from office by resolution of the Association in General Meeting in accordance with Section 168 of the Act;
- (c) Ceases to hold office under the Act or is prohibited by law from being a director or disqualified from acting as a director or a charity trustee under the Charities Act 2011.
- (d) Fails to declare her/his interest in any contract.
- (e) If she/he becomes of unsound mind.
- (f) Where, membership is a qualification for a Director, if she/he ceases to be a member of the Association.
- (g) If by notice in writing to the Association he resigns his office
- (h) If the unanimous opinion of the remaining Directors he is not acting in the best interests of the Association.
- (i) In accordance with any disciplinary code, and so long as the code is not repugnant to anything contained herein.
- (j) At the end of his term of office unless he is re-elected or re-appointed 57 (a) A Director shall not vote in respect of any contract in which s/he is directly interested or any matter arising there from and if s/he does so vote her/his vote shall not be counted. A Trustee shall withdraw from meetings when the item is under discussion and voting takes place.

(b) Where, for whatever reason, a Director has any form of indirect interest in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Association (which shall include a conflict of duty) and the transaction or arrangement is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles then it may be authorised by those Directors not having a conflict provided that the Director with the conflict (and any other interested Director) is not counted when considering whether or not there is a valid quorum for that part of the meeting and does not vote in relation to the matter giving rise to the conflict and the Directors who do not have a conflict in relation to the matter in question consider it is in the best interests of the Association to authorise the transaction. The Directors who do not have a conflict in relation to the matter in question may, in their absolute discretion, determine that the Director with the conflict and/or any other interested Director should absent himself from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion concerning the transaction or arrangement giving rise to the conflict.
